

Name _____

Date _____

Nouns: Using specific nouns to express ideas precisely

Directions: Watch the video “Nouns: Using specific nouns to express ideas precisely”. When the narrator asks you to do an activity, find that number and follow the directions from the video.

	I want a car. I love doing fun things. We visited many places.
	I think that homework has a negative effect on students because they don't have time for things after school.
	Kids like watching sports too because of the exciting moments that happen at the games.
	For example, they won't have time to practice sports after school when they have too much homework. <hr/> <hr/>
	1. If kids have too much homework, they might miss out on the stuff they think is fun. 1. _____ <hr/>

	<hr/> 2. Teachers should consider these things when they plan lessons. 2. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
--	---

Use Your Own Writing: Find 2 sentences from your own writing where you use nouns that are vague or unclear. Rewrite the sentences below turning the nouns into nouns that are more specific to help you express your ideas precisely.

.

1.

2.
